"Sailing into the Future"

Gallatin Senior High School
Gallatin, Tennessee

1980
The Beginning of a Decade . . .

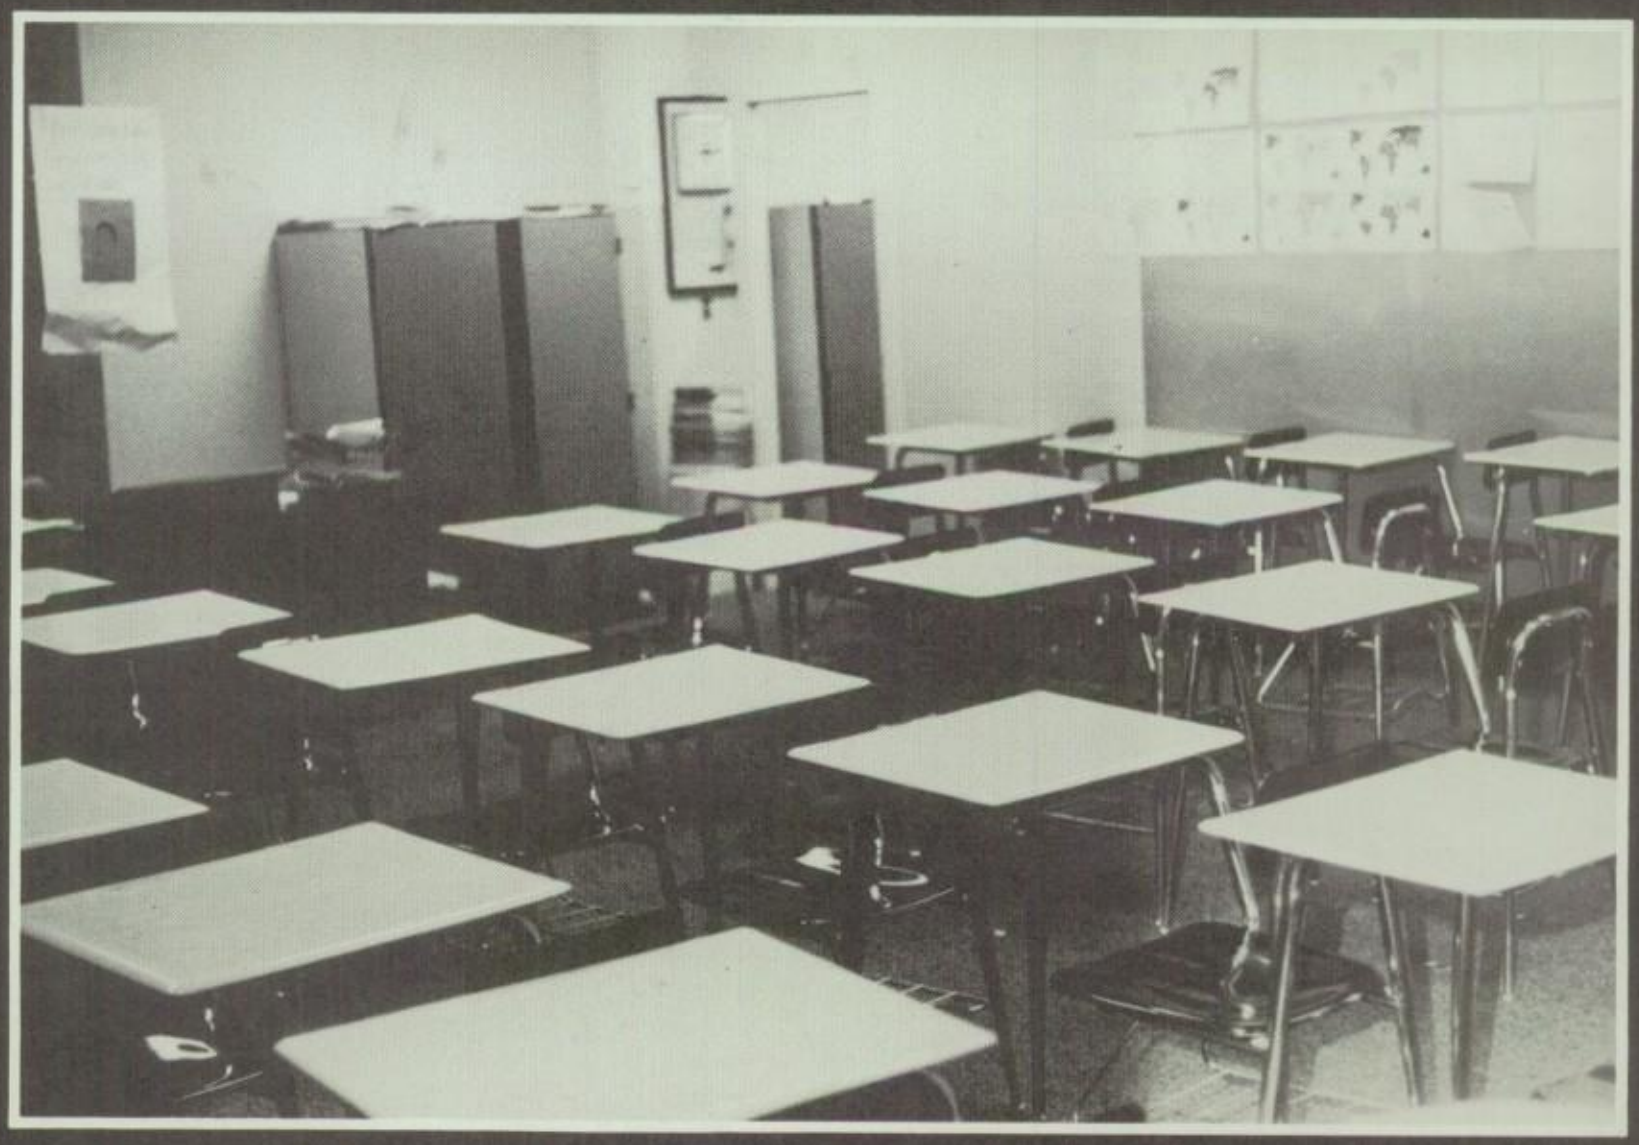
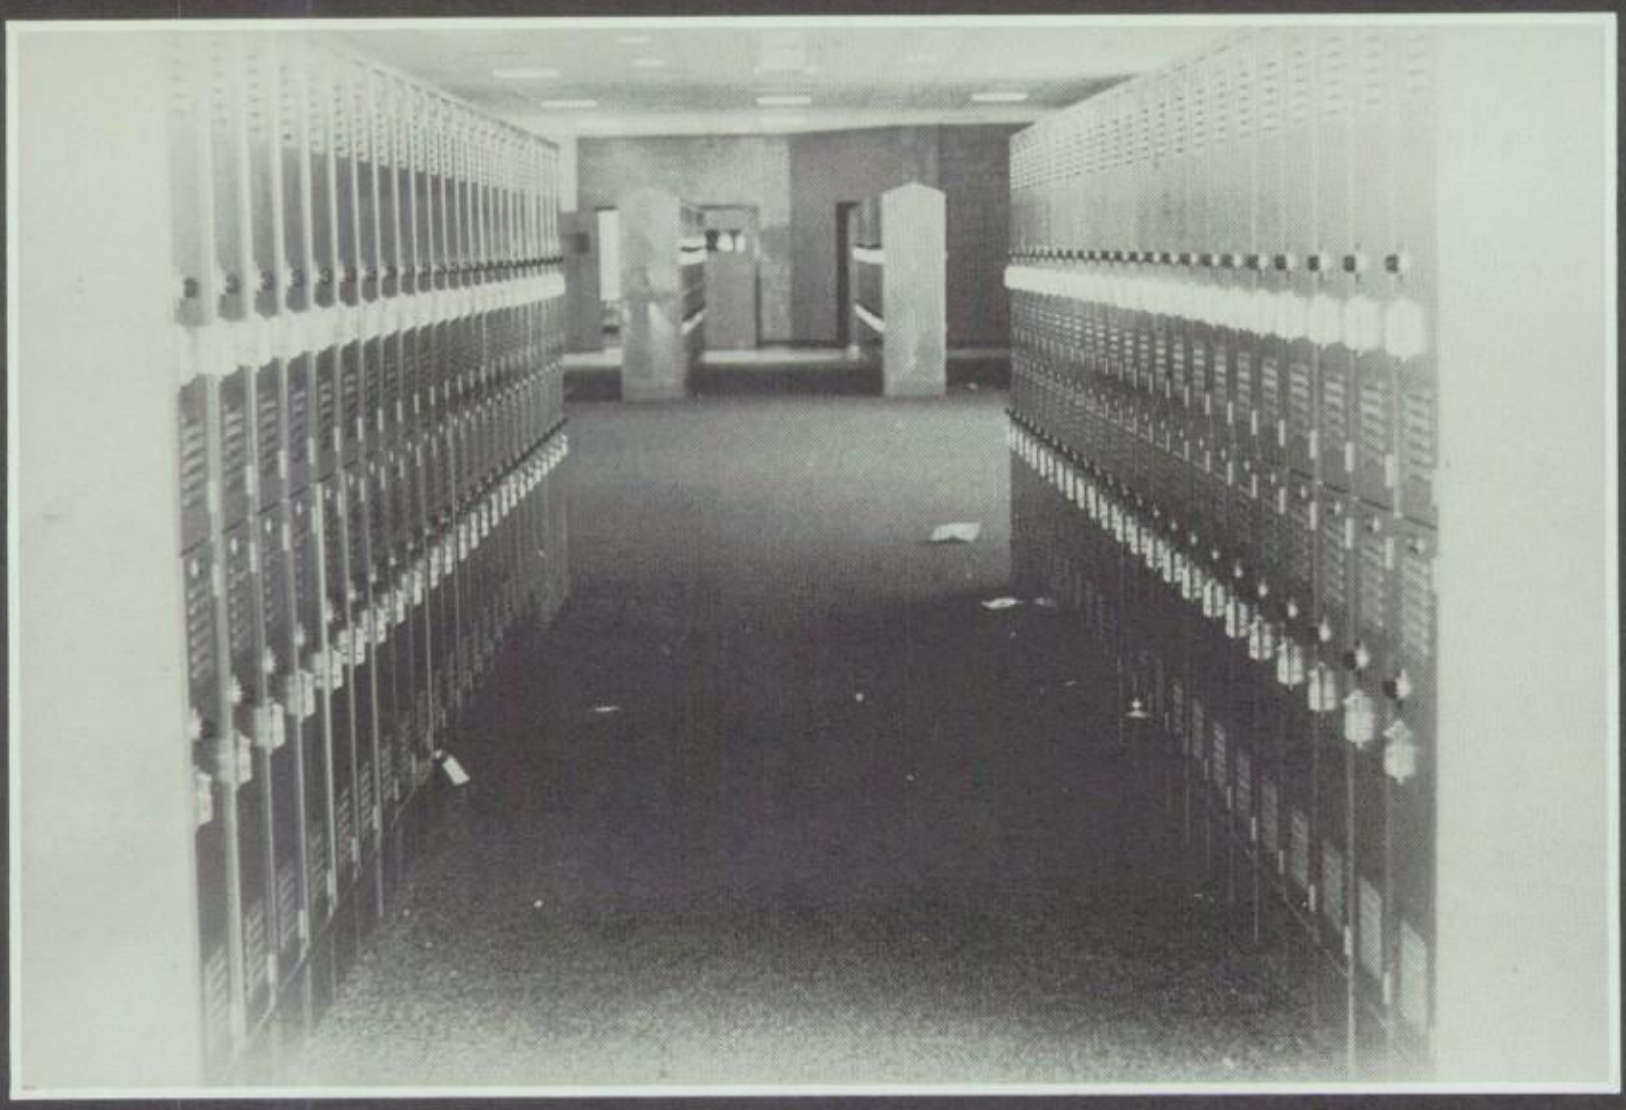
Echoes through my empty halls
Tell memories of the past
The way my students studied,
The way they talked and laughed.



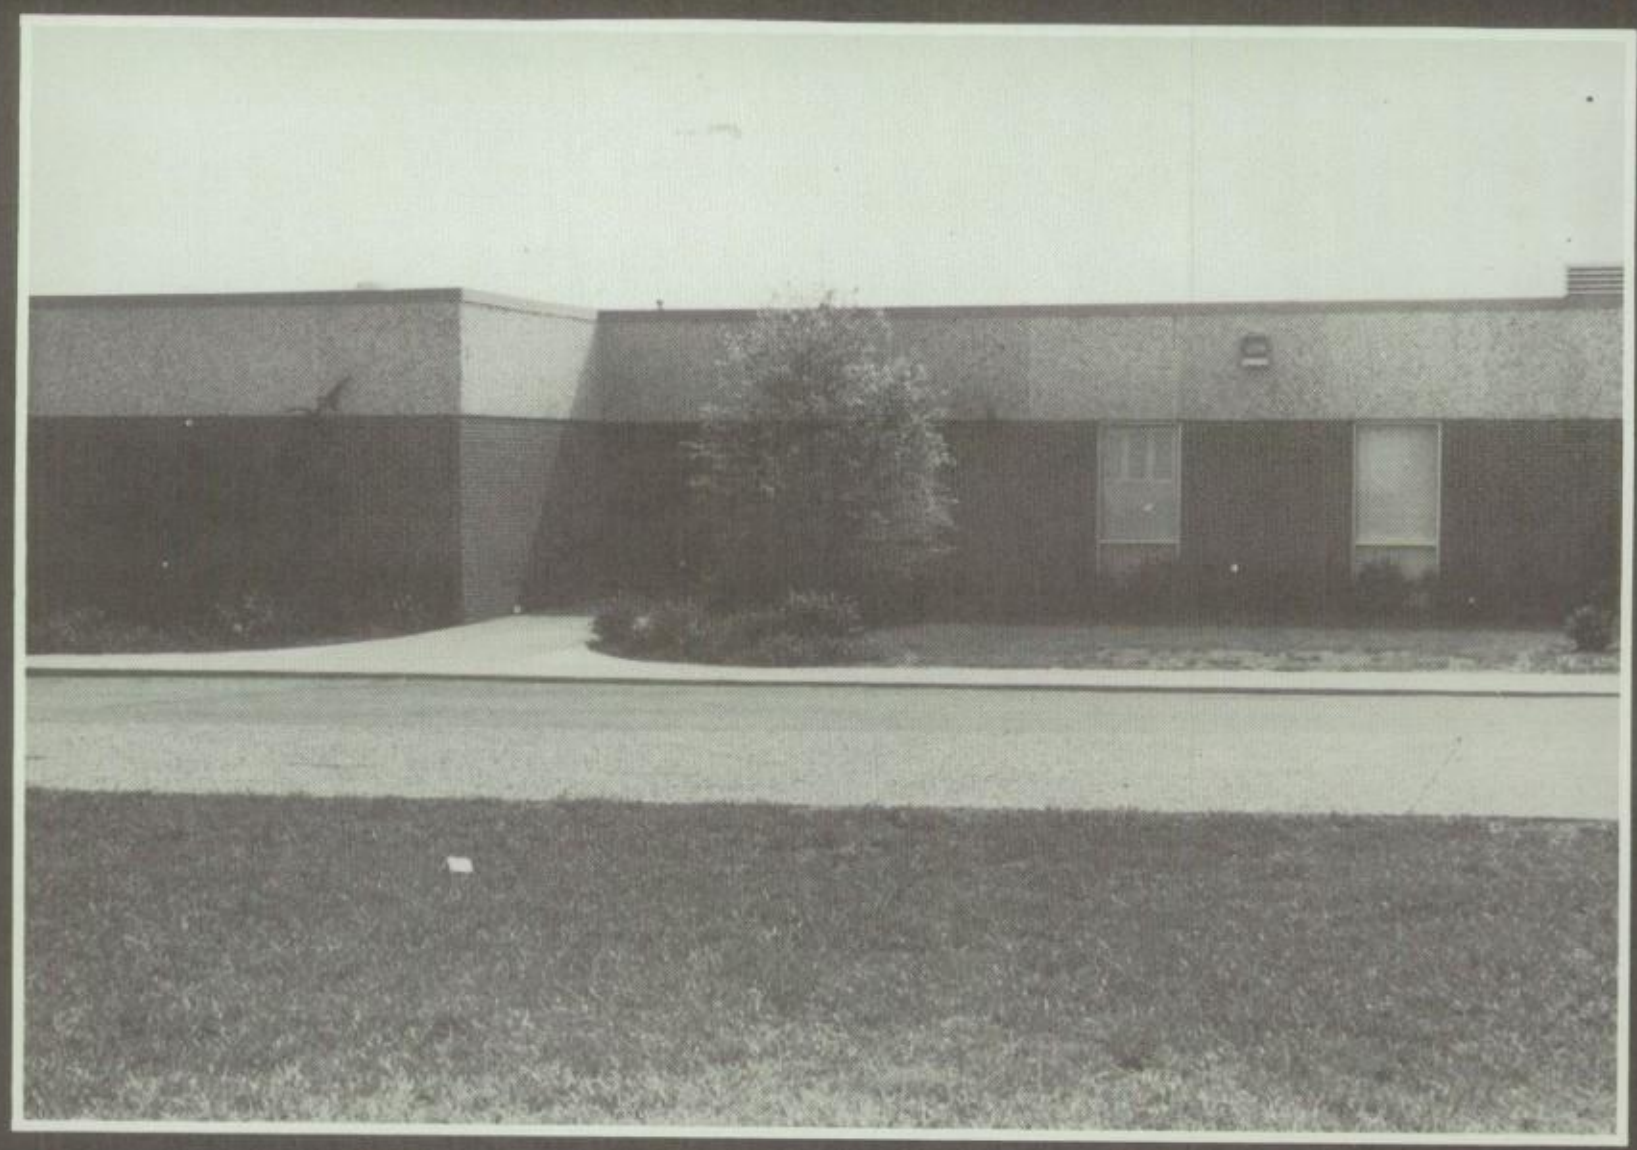
The incidents I've witnessed
Will always stay concealed.
The paper wads, the spilled lunch trays
Will never be revealed.

I've heard many secrets
Told to only me
They're in my walls and there they'll stay
Until eternity.



The giant roar of victory
Will in my mind stay clear;
The many great achievements
Will be remembered here.

Even when defeated
My students never quit,
They always fought until the end,
Their spirit fire stayed lit.



Failure was an unknown word
To students led by me.
They always tried their hardest
And showed their loyalty.

They called me Alma Mater,
And said that they'd be true.
But now they've gone and left me,
Beginning life anew.

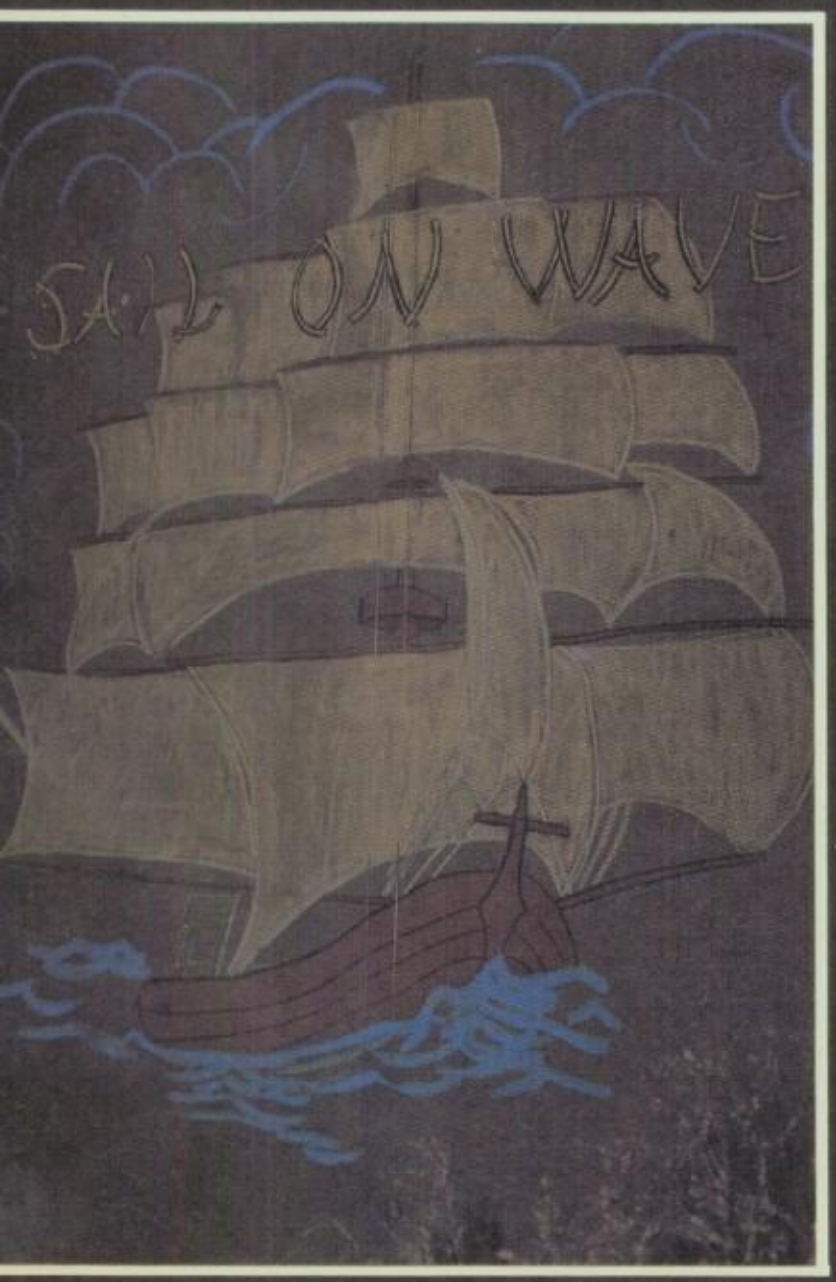
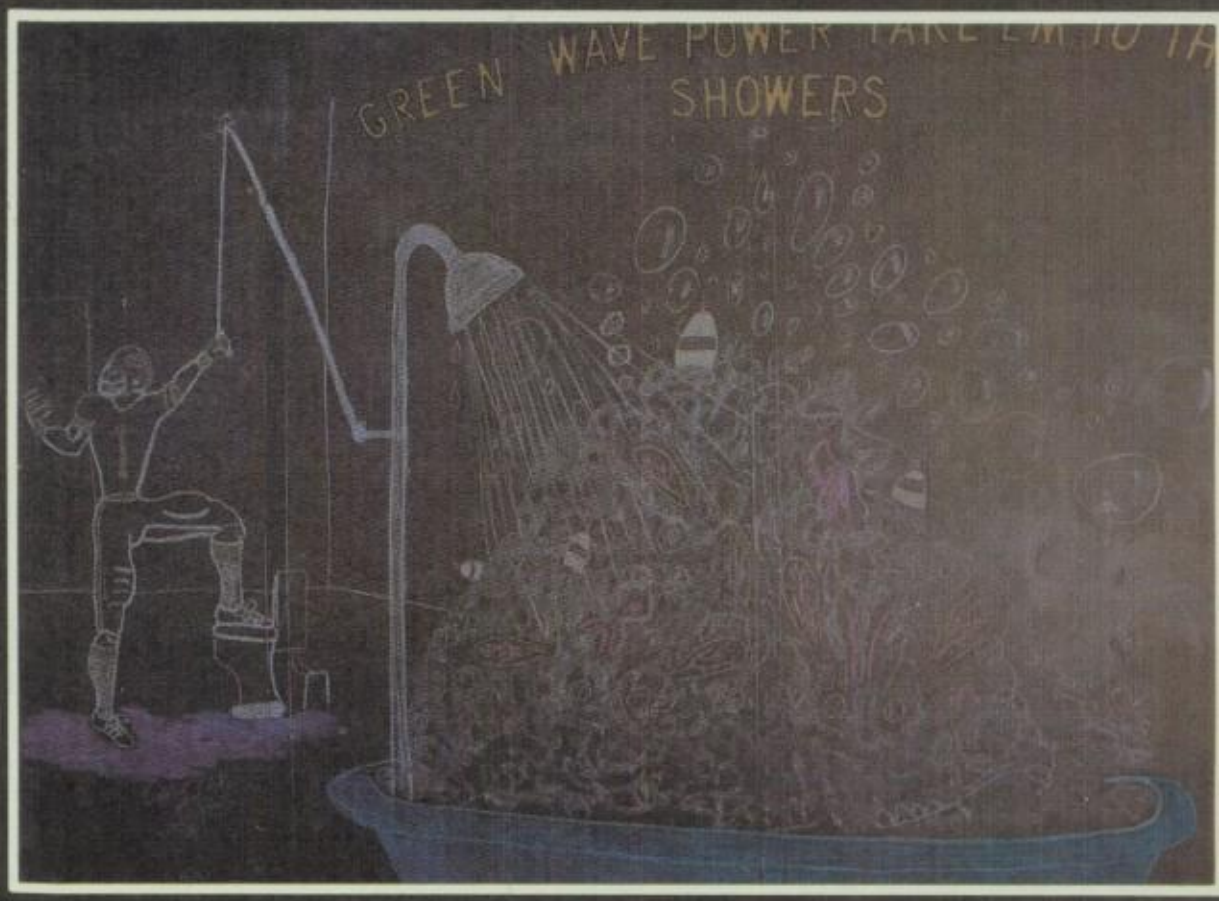
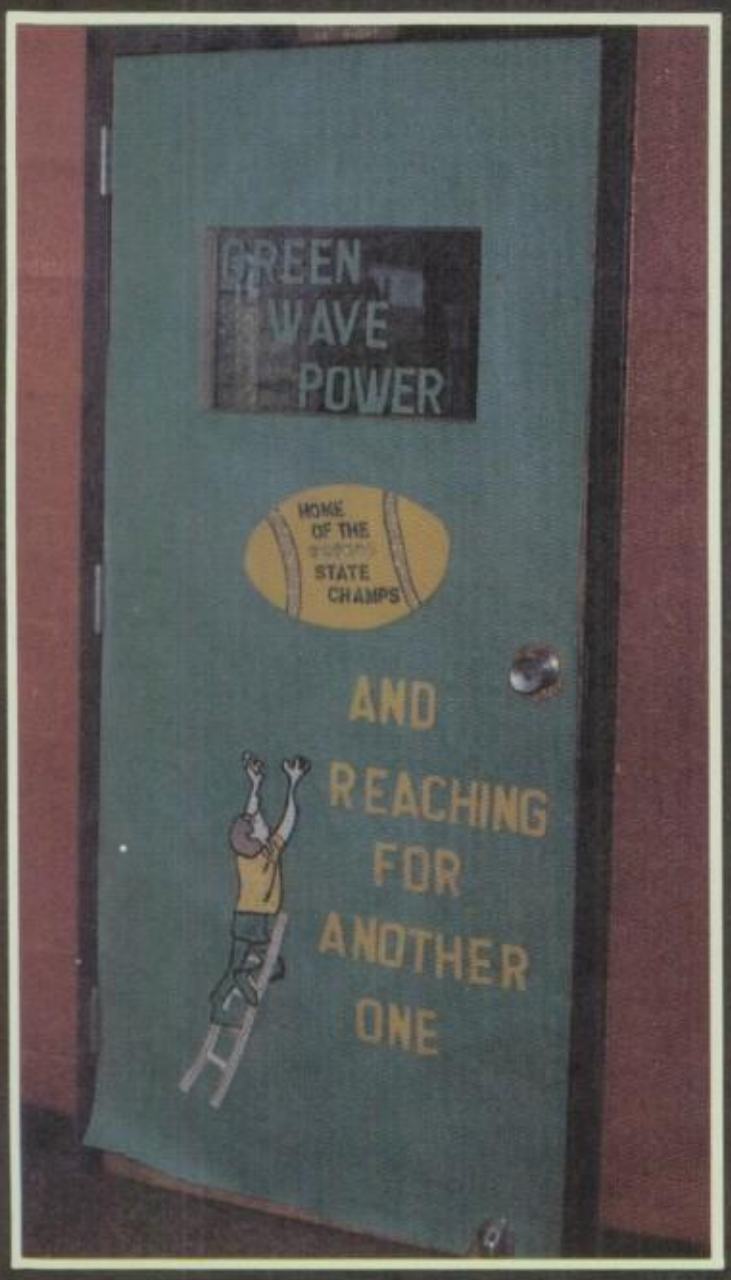
Homecoming '79

A Week of Traditions

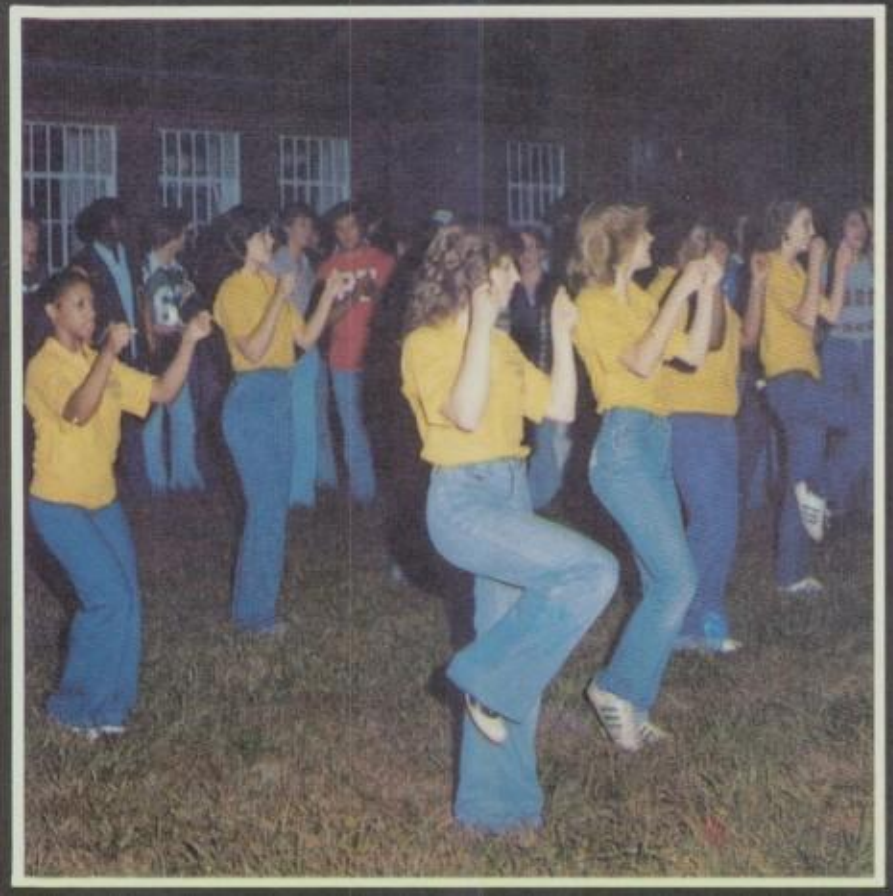


October 15-19, 1979 was Homecoming Week at Gallatin Senior High School. The Green Wave spirit was alive and felt even as the week began on Monday morning. A wide range of activities filled the next five days as rooms were decorated, floats were built and the rockin' 50's returned to Gallatin for a day. Homecoming Week had something for everyone to become involved in as the mighty Green Wave prepared to meet the Springfield Yellow Jackets on Friday Night.

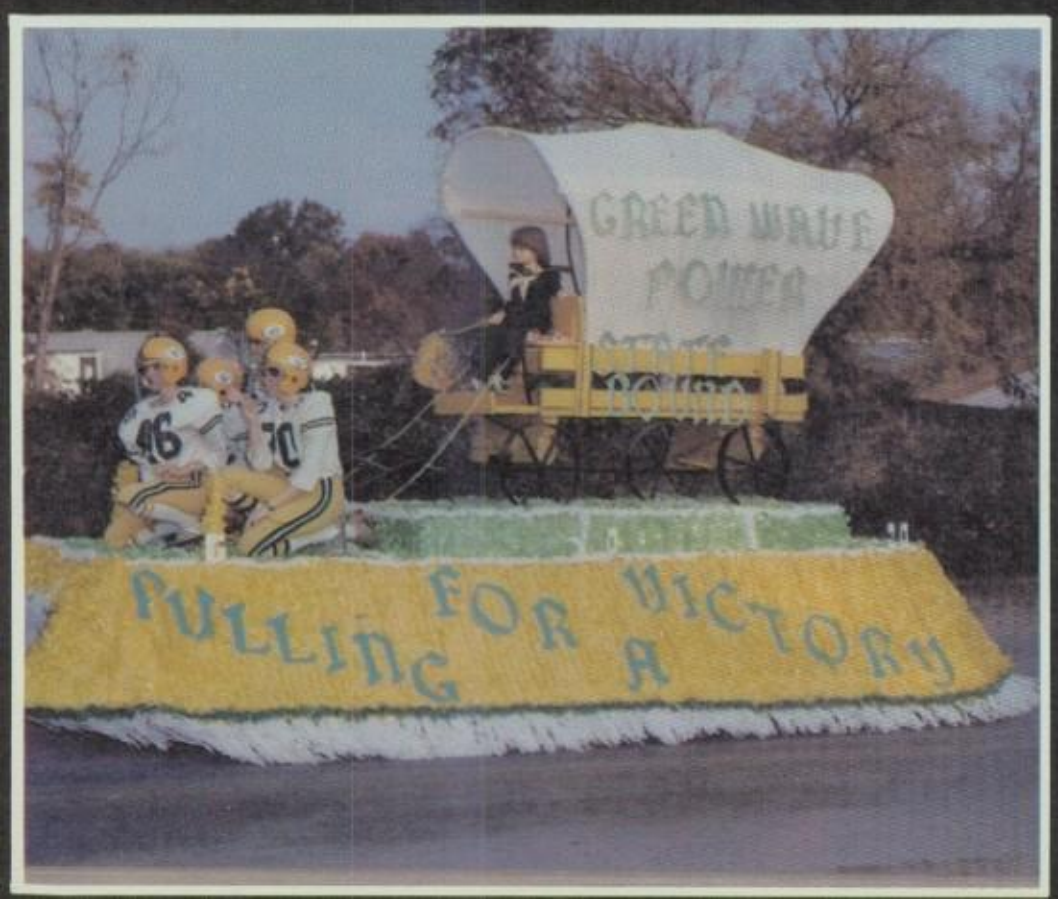




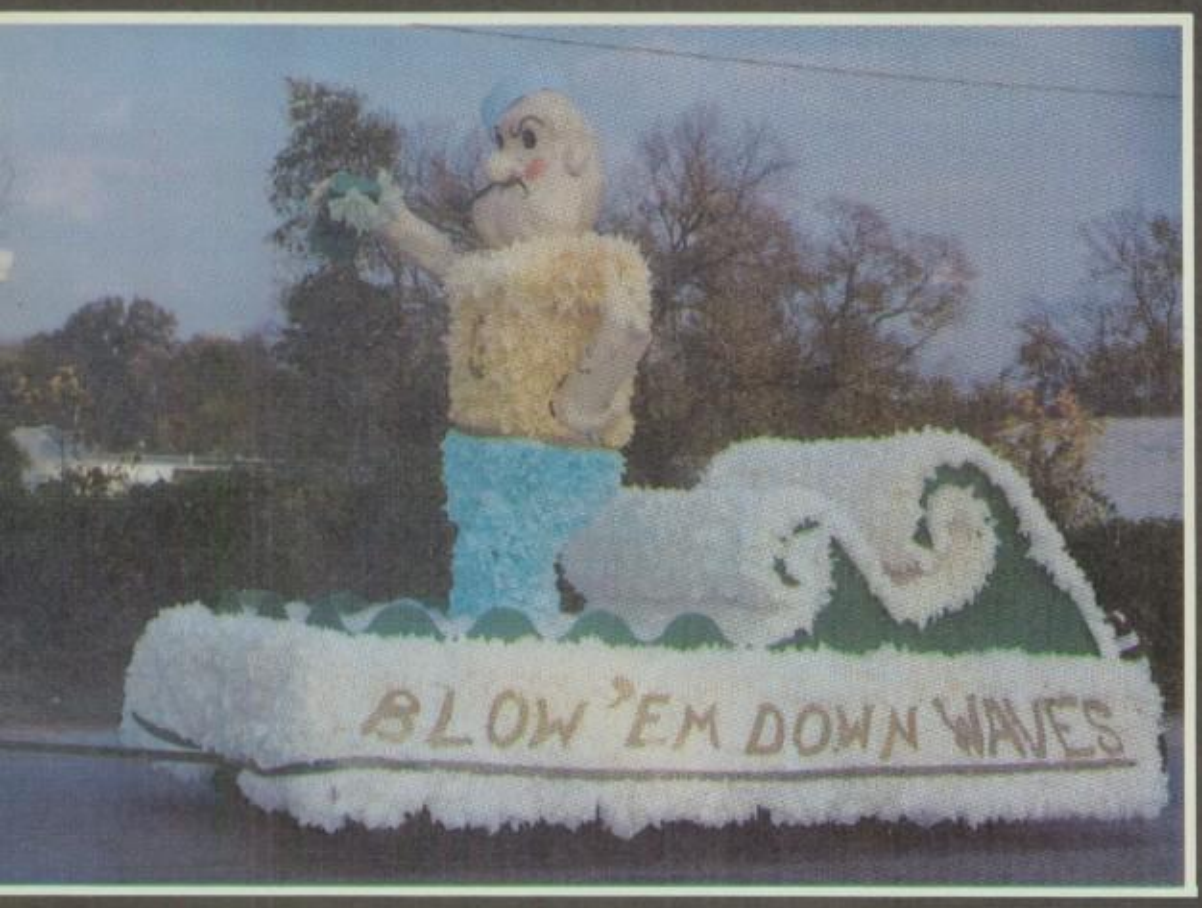
"Hat Day," as always, was a popular activity. This year's winners were Johnny Hester, Susie McClarnon, and Rita Hall. Even the teachers and principals took part in the festivities! Thursday night's pep rally at the armory was a huge success. The Seniors of '80 won the spirit stick and were treated to refreshments afterwards.

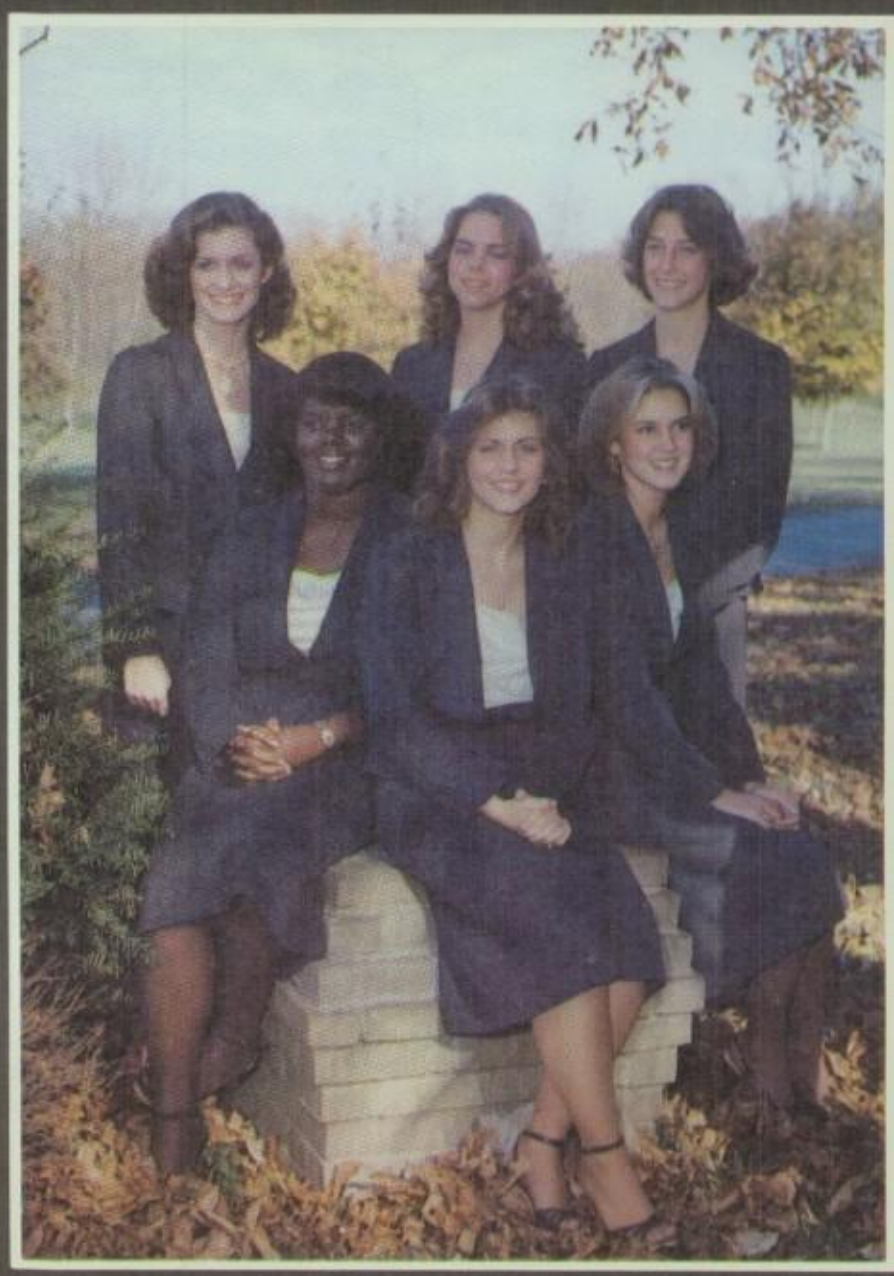


The annual homecoming parade was held on Friday afternoon at 4:00. The bands and floats gathered at the fairgrounds to align themselves for one of the best parades ever. Miss Mary Burton, a former counselor at GHS served as Grand Marshal.



This year's class floats were three of the best ever built by GHS students. "The Incredible Hulk," the work of the sophomores, won 1st place in the class competition. "Popeye," the creation of the senior class, placed second. The junior float, an electric lightning bolt, finished 3rd in the competition.





Members of the 1979 Gallatin Senior High School Homecoming Court were:

Opal Vaughn
Rita Hall
Karla Chrisman
Maxie Barron
Jane DeBow McDonald
Beth Bates

At the pregame activities Friday night, the Senior football players, band members, cheerleaders, and High Tiders were honored with their parents. At halftime, the homecoming court was presented by their escorts.

When the buzzer sounded, Gallatin had won its homecoming game and its 21st straight victory, defeating Springfield 48-0.

Basketball Homecoming

On February 1st, the GHS gym was bubbling with the color and excitement of basketball homecoming. This year, mini-floats were made by the 3 classes and various school clubs to add to the other events of the evening. Between games the senior members of the basketball teams were honored with their parents. The night ended victoriously as both the boys' and girls' teams defeated the Carthage Owls.

1980 Basketball Seniors

To most students, Seniors are only so called "12th Graders," but to Basketball Players, Seniors stand for much more. Seniors are the leaders, guiders, and examples of the team. They are the ones who have worked for hours as each game brought them closer to the end of their high school career. These 8 seniors are to be commended for this and their previous years' work for without them our Waves would have been much less. To all who have donned the green and gold for the last time . . . WE SALUTE YOU!!!

This class has left behind a record that will be hard to match by anyone. Over the last four years only a few games have been lost by this team. In 1976, as freshmen, an 8-0 undefeated season was posted and they were champions of the North Central Conference. In 1977, during their sophomore year, a varsity record of 8-4 slated with a District and a Regional Championship, in which a few sophomores have starting roles, but most of the sophomores played on the junior varsity team which had a 6-0 season. In 1978, a State Championship was brought home to Gallatin on the wings of an undefeated 14-0 season. This was the junior year for our seniors but they filled over half of the starting positions and contributed much to the Championship. Their senior year came in 1979. The '79 season started with the Green Wave ranked number one in the state and found themselves playing the number two ranked team in the state, Baylor. A Gallatin victory left the leadway for the Green Wave to remain ranked number one the entire season. The seniors fell short of their dream of one more State Championship by only one game losing to Jackson Central Merry in Overtime. The '79 season was highlighted by a 12-1 record with District, Regional, and Clinic Bowl Championships.

Class Tournaments

Class tournaments are a time for class pride and togetherness. This year was no exception. As the 4-day event progressed, rivalry stiffened and excelled not only during the basketball games but also during the tug-of-war competitions held at half-time. The Senior boys made quick work of the junior boys in the tug-of-war, but the junior girls triumphed as the seniors fell after a valiant effort.

In tournament action, the Senior girls made it 3 years in a row as school champions as they soundly defeated the sophomores and the juniors. The Senior boys did equally well, becoming champions for the second year in a row. Better luck next year, Juniors and Sophomores.

Student Life

My life as a student holds
many memories.
First of all, I remember study.
Learning, probing my mind, trying to find knowledge;
Sometimes succeeding, sometimes failing;
But always trying to defeat the unknown.
Trying to make knowledge rush to me,
Not realizing that I must wait for it
— and time passes slowly.

Secondly, I remember duty.
A time of trust; a sense of responsibility.
Others depending upon my deeds.
A helpful hand to those who need it.
I think of frustration and the
fulfillment
Of discovery. A discovery of satisfaction in
Being unselfish.

PAGEANT

I recall a time when my talents were Called upon. A time when
what I had learned
Got a chance to show itself.
For the first time, I was
on my own,
Creating for others and not just
my own pleasure.

Looking back on school days,
I remember carefree times.
Moments between the rush of learning and helping.
A time for joy and fun
And sharing friendships with
a million
Different people. Smiles . . .
The warmth of cheerfulness.
The thrill of competition . . .
the ecstasy of excellence,
And the misery of defeat.
All combined to make a
life of pleasure
In moments of friendship and experience.
